DESCRIPTION

This retreat offers an opportunity to return to that in us which is peaceful, wise, compassionate and innocent. Through a spacious mixture of guided meditations, reflections, dialogue, gentle yoga and time on your own, we will learn to rest our awareness in the body and the breath. To let go of thoughts that do not serve us, and experience emotions more through the body, less through the mind. The aim is to afterwards return to our daily life with more courage, more heart, more humor, more clarity, standing steadier in our own lives.

The retreat will be lead by Björn Natthiko Lindeblad, assisted by Petra Bensland, who will lead the two daily yoga sessions. This retreat has been designed to suit both people who have little or no previous experience of meditation or yoga, and more experienced practitioners.

Björn Natthiko Lindeblad was a Buddhist monk in the Thai forest tradition for 16 years. He has taught meditation for almost 20 years, in nine countries on four continents. Since he returned from the Buddhist monks life to his native Sweden in 2008, he has become one of Sweden's most appreciated public speakers and meditation teachers, and appears regularly on TV and national radio.

Petra Bensland is a certified Classical Yoga teacher, co-founder and co-owner of Yoga Elements Zürichsee & Cal Reiet Holistic Retreat. The yoga sessions will be focused on breath and alignment. So you will be perfectly prepared for Björn's meditation and Dharma talks.
